

À votre tour!

OBJECTIFS

Now you can...

- order snacks and beverages in a café
- ask about prices and pay for your food/drink
- tell time and give the date
- talk about the weather

1 Écoutez bien!

ÉCOUTER Isabelle is in a café talking to Jean-Paul. You will hear Isabelle asking questions. For each of Isabelle's questions, select Jean-Paul's response from the suggested answers.

- Deux euros cinquante.
- Quatre heures et demie.
- Oui, j'ai soif.
- C'est le 3 novembre.
- Oui, j'ai faim.
- Il fait beau.

2 Quelle heure est-il?

PARLER Give the times indicated on the following clocks.

3 Conversation dirigée

ÉCOUTER ET PARLER Stéphanie is in a café called Le Select. The waiter is taking her order. With a partner, compose and act out a dialogue according to the script suggested below.

le garçon			Stéphanie
	greet client and asks if he may help her	→	says that she would like a croissant and asks how much an orange juice costs
	answers 2 euros	→	asks for an orange juice...
		→	calls the waiter and asks how much she owes says 4 euros cinquante	→	gives waiter 5 euros (Voici...)
	says thank you

4 Au café

PARLER You are in a French café. Call the waiter/waitress and order the following items. A classmate will play the part of the waiter/waitress.

- —Monsieur (Mademoiselle), s'il vous plaît!
- Vous désirez?
- Un croissant, s'il vous plaît!
- (Donnez-moi un croissant, s'il vous plaît!)
- (Je voudrais un croissant, s'il vous plaît!)

STRATEGY Speaking

Sounding French If you want French people to understand you, the most important thing is to speak with an even rhythm and to stress the last syllable in each group of words. (Try speaking English this way: people will think you have a French accent!)

PARLER With two other classmates, act out the following scene.

CHARACTERS:

You, a French friend, and the waiter in the café

SITUATION:

A French friend has been showing you around Paris. You invite your friend to a café and discover too late that you have not changed enough money. Your friend will respond to your questions.

- Ask your friend if he/she is thirsty.
- Ask if he/she wants a soft drink.
- Ask if he/she is hungry.
- Ask if he/she wants a sandwich.
- When the waiter comes, your friend orders and you ask for a croissant and a cup of hot chocolate.
- Ask the waiter how much everything is.
- Ask your friend to please lend you 20 euros.

6 La date, la saison et le temps

PARLER Look at the calendar days. For each one, give the day and the date, the season, and the weather.

► C'est mardi, le dix avril.
C'est le printemps.
Il pleut.
