

À votre tour!

OBJECTIFS

Now you can ...

- describe what you and other people are doing and not doing
- talk about what you and other people like and don't like to do

1 Allô!

PARLER Sophie is phoning some friends. Match her questions on the left with her friends' answers on the right.

1 Est-ce que Marc est canadien?

a Non, elle travaille.

2 Est-ce que tu joues au tennis?

b Oui, mais pas très bien.

3 Ton frère est à la maison?

c Bien sûr! Elles aiment beaucoup danser.

4 Ta mère est en vacances?

d Oui, il habite à Montréal.

5 Tu invites Christine et Juliette à la boum?

e Non, il dîne au restaurant avec un copain.

2 Créa-dialogue

PARLER Find out how frequently your classmates do the following activities. They will respond using one of the expressions on the scale.

NON

OUI

rarement → un peu → souvent → beaucoup

- — Robert, est-ce que tu joues au tennis?
 — Non, je ne joue pas au tennis.
 — Est-ce que tu écoutes la radio?
 — Oui, j'écoute souvent la radio.

3 Qu'est-ce qu'ils font?

(What do they do?)

PARLER/ÉCRIRE Look at what the following students have put in their lockers and say what they like to do.

Éric aime jouer au tennis.
Il aime aussi ...

4 Message illustré

ÉCRIRE Marc wrote about certain activities, using pictures. On a separate sheet, write out his description replacing these pictures with the missing words.

5 Point de vue personnel

ÉCRIRE Write a short composition in which you describe some of the activities you do and don't do in different situations: at home, in class, on vacation, with your friends, and with your family. If appropriate, you may indicate how frequently you engage in certain activities.

STRATEGY Writing

- First list the activities you want to mention, using infinitives.
- Write out your paragraph describing your activities and those that you do not do.
- Check your composition to be sure all verb forms are correct.

- à la maison
- en classe
- en vacances
- avec mes copains
- avec ma famille

😊	☹️
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____